Studying at Frances King

Your first week

Please arrive at the school at 8.30 on your first day. We aim for you to join a class at the beginning of the first lesson of the week – at 9.00 for morning classes and 13.45 for afternoon classes.

You will first need to show your passport, complete next of kin information for use in any emergency, and also complete a short feedback form about your accommodation (if arranged by Frances King).

We will then give you a “welcome pack” and a lanyard to wear while you are in school. You can then go to class, meet your teacher and classmates and start learning.

On Monday at 9.00 there is a new student meeting on the first floor.

If you want you can join a short local area tour at 13.00, also on Tuesday. Meet on the first floor.

You can see this week’s activities on the first floor notice board.

If you have any questions please come to reception, we are all here to help you.

If you haven't signed in, or contacted us, the school will contact your accommodation or your family in your country.

You should attend all classes and on time. The school has a strict attendance policy, and you should also let us know if you are running late (e.g. over 15 minutes).

Student card and lanyard

You should always wear your orange ID lanyard inside the school buildings. This is for your safety. If you have forgotten your lanyard, please come to reception when you arrive at the school to request a temporary one. If you see someone that you do not know in the school not wearing a lanyard, please inform a member of staff immediately and do not speak to this person.

You can recognise the different people in the school by their lanyards:

- Blue: students
- Orange: students under 18
- Blue/green: staff members
- Pink: visitors who have registered at the reception

Emergency telephone number

The Frances King Emergency Telephone number is 07768 325391. You can also find this on the back of your Student Card.

For emergency services (Police, Fire Brigade, Ambulance) call 999 or 112. These calls are free and you do not need credit on your phone to call.

You will sometimes need to make an appointment in reception. Here are some of the languages which may be available: Arabic, French, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Polish, Portuguese & Spanish.

The school pays for the lunch, taken in local cafes, restaurants or at the school.

What to do with your afternoons

So, you have to be back at your homestay for dinner, but what can you do in the gap between your classes ending and then?

Here are a few ideas:

1. Go home to spend time with your host family if they are at home – get to know them better, relax and practise your speaking.
2. Hang out in the common room. You can watch TV or films. This is a great way to passively improve your English and have fun at the same time.
3. If you would like somewhere quiet to study in the afternoons, ask reception to let you know which classrooms are available.
4. If you want to study in a library instead, the nearest public library is Brompton Library at 210 Old Brompton Road. You can also go to the National Art Library in the V&A Museum. This is an incredibly beautiful library, which is free and open to everyone on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 11.00 to 17.00. You will need to leave your bag in the museum's cloakroom and there is no food or drink permitted inside.
5. Join in one of the Activity Programme events. Most days (3 or 4 days a week) our events start at 14.00 or 15.45. Unless it says otherwise, all of these events are suitable for 16- and 17-year olds (the pub events are not!) It's a great way to see more of London and get to know other students too. Check the Activity Programme posters around the school.
6. If you have already made friends at Frances King, why not arrange to go out to museums or galleries? Some good FREE ones are:
 - Natural History Museum (5 minutes' walk from the school on Cromwell Road)
 - Science Museum (8 minutes' walk, on Exhibition Road)
 - Victoria & Albert Museum (V&A) (10 minutes' walk, on Cromwell Road)
 - Tate Britain (20 minutes by underground) Go to Pimlico station on the Victoria Line (12 minutes), then follow the signs for the gallery (8 minutes' walking)
 - Tate Modern (30 minutes by underground) Either go to Southwark station on the Jubilee Line and walk, or go to Mansion House on the District or Circle

Line, then walk towards St Paul's Cathedral and across the bridge to the gallery

- National Gallery (20 minutes by underground) Go to Embankment on the District or Circle Line and then follow the signs for Trafalgar Square
 - National Portrait Gallery (20 minutes by underground) Go to Embankment on the District or Circle Line and then follow the signs for Trafalgar Square. The entrance is on St Martin's Place, to the side of the National Gallery
 - Museum of London (35 minutes by underground) Go to Barbican station on the Circle Line, NOT the District Line. The museum is visible in a big roundabout to the right of the station – there are several entrances you can use
 - Design Museum (20 minutes by bus) Take the 49 bus from opposite the school and then get off at the Design Museum stop on High Street Kensington
 - Imperial War Museum (30 minutes by underground) Go to Sloane Square station on the District or Circle Line, then walk 10 minutes to the Royal Hospital
 - British Museum (25 minutes by underground) Go to Holborn station on the Piccadilly Line and then follow the signs for a short walk to the museum on Great Russell Street
 - Wallace Collection (30 minutes by underground) Go to Bond Street station on the Central or Jubilee Line, then a 5 minute walk to Manchester Square
7. In summer, you can go to Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park. Take the 49 bus for 5 minutes or walk 15 minutes straight up Gloucester Road to the parks.
8. Go and see a film at the cinema. Depending on the time of day, type of film and cinema you choose, prices vary from £8.00-£28.00! Big American movies at cinemas in Leicester Square cost the most. Older films and documentaries, or cinemas in zones 2 or 3 cost the least. Going on a weekday and in the afternoon is usually cheaper at most cinemas. Remember, you can't go to any films which have an 18 certificate.

Self-study outside class time

There is a quiet study room available on the second floor in the afternoons. Our Study Guide has plenty of ideas for self-study. Scan the QR in your welcome pack to view it.

Places of worship and prayer room

Please ask in reception if you are looking for a place of worship for any religion. There are rooms set aside for prayer 12.50 - 15.30 on the 4th floor.

Complaints procedure

You can also make a complaint online at: <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/FKLondon>

Digital behaviour / IT policy

The school IT system will require you to agree to safe use conditions when you connect to our WiFi, and you will have to confirm this once a week.

It is very important that you treat the internet with great care – remember that people you meet on the internet may not be what they seem. There are a lot of bad people out there who pretend to be someone else to try to trick you. They may try to steal your money, steal your identity or hurt you. Never agree to meet anyone in real life who you have made friends with over the internet.

Here are some rules you can follow which will help you to stay safe online:

- Do not share your usernames or passwords with anyone nor use anyone's usernames or passwords
- Do not share any personal information (e.g. contact details) about yourself or anyone else online
- Do not meet anyone in real life who you have met online
- Report immediately to a member of staff or your homestay host if you receive any inappropriate message that makes you feel upset or unhappy
- Do not access, share, or store any illegal or inappropriate material (gambling, pornography, unpaid music/films, violent or extremist material etc.)
- Do not share on the internet or social media any picture of anyone without their consent
- Be polite online. Do not use unkind, angry, or bad language

At your homestay

- Your host is here to help you have an enjoyable stay but also to make sure that you are safe. Please behave in a kind and respectful manner and understand that they could get worried or upset if you misbehave (like a parent would).
- Give your phone number to your host before arrival or on first day in the house, and make sure you store their number in your phone as well. For extra safety, make sure you write this number down on a piece of paper which you keep with you, in case you lose your phone and need to contact them.
- It is likely that your host has specific house rules, which will be explained to you on arrival. These may include setting a time for breakfast and dinner. If you are going to be late for mealtimes, you must let the host know.
- You must obey the rules your host family gives you. If you behave badly, they can refuse to let you continue to stay there, and you will have to move to a different homestay, which you may be charged for.
- On your arrival, ask your homestay to show you the safest/quickest way to get to the school and the main points of interest of the city from their house.
- Always be back at your homestay by curfew time: 10:00pm from Sunday and Thursday and 11:00pm on Friday and Saturday nights.
- If you are planning to go out in the evening or on the weekend (day trips only), always inform your host in advance about where you are going (address and ideally a phone number of the person you are meeting, if applicable) and what time you are coming back. Always have your phone battery charged and some credit to be able to call/text. Inform your host of any change of plan or if you are running late.
- Please note that you will require permission both from your parents and the school to stay out overnight with friends or to arrange your own holidays. Excursions outside the UK are not permitted.
- Your host should always remain in the house overnight. Let us know immediately if this is not the case.
- If you have any concerns or problems, talk to your host as they care about your wellbeing and can help straightaway. If your concern or problem is regarding your host or you feel uncomfortable talking to your host about it, please talk to our Reception team.

Health Care in the UK

If you are not entitled to free medical treatment from the National Health Services (NHS) we strongly advise that you buy medical insurance if you have not done so already. Private medical treatment is very expensive.

2. Your country has a reciprocal health agreement with the UK
3. You are a UK resident

Please note that everyone is entitled to free emergency medical treatment in the UK. However, if you are admitted to hospital you may be charged if you are not entitled to free medical care (as described above).

Can I register with a doctor?

If you are studying in the UK for more than 6 months, please follow the registering guidelines below:

1. Find a doctor in your local area www.nhs.uk
2. Contact the practice and ask to register with them. You will need: your name and address, date of birth, id card / passport and proof of address
3. Once registered, you will receive an NHS card. Keep it safe and take it with you when you go to the doctor, dentist or hospital

If you are studying in the UK for less than 6 months and you need to see a doctor, please go to one of the walk-in medicentres (more information below).

Dental treatment

There are many private dentists that charge for their services. For free dental treatment by supervised dental students you can try:

Personal Safety

London is generally a safe place to be but as with a lot of big cities there are sometimes pick-pockets and thieves. We would like to help you to avoid being a victim of these crimes. Here is some friendly advice to help you have a safe and worry-free time in London.

Most people in London don't use cash very much - we usually only carry £20 - £50 with us on a normal day. Avoid carrying large amounts of cash unless you know you need to pay for something - and don't worry about using a card to pay for even very small amounts.

Your personal belongings

- Do not leave your purse, wallet or phone on the table in a restaurant or in a classroom during a break.
- Make sure your wallet, purse or phone is in a pocket or bag and can't be seen by a pick pocket. It is best to have a bag with a zip.
- Watch your bag at all times and keep them close to you (on your knee), especially in pubs or crowded places.
- Be careful of people approaching you in the street or when sitting at a restaurant, they might be trying to distract you so they can take your phone, wallet or purse.
- Sometimes criminals will pretend to be policemen so they can steal your money. Police in the UK will be in uniform or will show you their ID when they start speaking to you. You can ask to look closely at their ID.
- Only keep things in your bag that are essential to you. For example, in the UK you do not need to carry your identification card or passport with you at all times, so the safest place for this is at home locked inside your suitcase. Carry a picture of your ID on your phone and a photocopy in your bag or pocket. We can make a photocopy for you in Reception. For ID, carry a driving licence if you have one.

Using your credit card

Do not give your PIN number to anyone. You should never be asked for it even by your bank, a Police Officer or a shop assistant. When you are getting cash from a cash point check there is no one looking over your shoulder before you start and be aware of people around you while you use the cashpoint. People usually cover their hand while they enter their PIN number into a machine, so don't worry that this might appear to be rude. If possible, use a cashpoint inside a bank.

Safety on the streets and protecting yourself from pickpockets

- When crossing the road, remember that vehicles drive on the left in the UK.
- If you are returning home at night, try not to walk home by yourself. Walk in a group preferably or use public transport. Avoid putting yourself at risk by taking shortcuts e.g., through dimly-lit alleyways or parks.
- Do ensure that you have a mobile phone with you that it is fully charged and has enough credit for you to make phone calls/text.
- Do let your host and a friend know where you are going.
- Sit near other passengers on the bus or tube. On a bus sitting downstairs near the driver is safest. Tell the driver if someone is causing a problem or making you feel uncomfortable. If necessary, get off the bus at the next stop, where there are other people. Do not get off where the people causing trouble do, even if it means missing your stop.
- If you decide to take a taxi, on the street only take a black cab (traditional London taxis with an orange light on top), both driver and cab are licensed. A licenced taxi should have its license number displayed on the back of the vehicle. All taxis should use a meter unless a fixed price has been agreed. To take a minicab you need to phone for one. Addison Lee is a reliable taxi company (phone number +44 (0) 207 387 8888). Make sure the driver tells you your name before you get in. Only pay the driver after you have got out of the taxi. You can also ask your host if they know any reputable local company. Many people use Uber, an app on your phone which means you don't have to use cash or card to pay for your ride.
- Do not go to local parks at night.
- If you feel you are being followed, cross the street more than once if necessary, and if you still feel threatened move as quickly as possible to a public area such as a restaurant and phone for help (your hosts - you could ask them to accompany you home). If you think you are in danger you should call the Police on 999.
- Be alert when using a mobile phone. Be discreet and try to conceal it. Never walk along looking at your phone. There are people who go around on motorbikes looking for people to steal mobile phones from – they will ride on to the pavement and take your phone right out of your hand!
- Don't wander along the street with your earphones on.
- If you are withdrawing money from an ATM cash machine, be aware of others around you and try not to use them at night or in poorly lit areas. Whenever possible use the ATMs inside a bank.
- Avoid talking to strangers. They might be asking you for directions or just pretending to be friendly while distracting you for a nearby partner to rob you. Walk purposefully and ignore anybody who tries to speak to you especially in or near tube stations. Stopping to consult a map in the street is a good indication that you are a tourist and easy target for pickpockets while you are concentrating on your map. Try to plan your route before you leave your home or while you are sitting in a coffee shop.

- Be very careful in crowded places such as buses, tubes and lifts during rush hour. These are favourite places for pickpockets. Take your backpack off your back and hold it in front of you. If you use a shoulder bag, bring this in front of your body as well. Don't carry your wallet in the back pocket of your trousers.
- Keep your keys in your pocket, if possible, or at least separate from your other belongings. Then if you lose your bag, you can still get into your home.
- If you are robbed, report it immediately to the Police by calling 101. If violence or a weapon was used, please call 999 (the number for all Emergency Services in the UK). Please also report it to Reception when you come to school, so we can give you support and advice.

If you need urgent help from Frances King, remember to call the FK emergency number: +44 (0)7768 325391. This number is on the back of your student card.

Britain has strict laws against the use of illegal drugs and punishments can be very heavy. You are strongly advised not to use illegal drugs during your stay.

Shoplifting

People who are caught stealing from shops will probably have to go to court and pay a fine. If you are here on a visa, you may not be allowed to return to the UK.

TV licence

Every house/flat that has a TV or if you watch TV channels on a laptop/phone/iPad etc. you must have a TV licence. If you rent a room or are in a flat share, find out who is responsible for getting the TV licence. If you answer the door when officials come, you will be the one that goes to court.

Council Tax

This is a local tax that is charged on each property. It varies in different boroughs (districts) in London and each has its own rules for discounts for students, usually you need to study on an intensive course or live in student accommodation. You will need to check with your local council.

Weapons

It is illegal to carry any weapon for defence including gas and pepper sprays. You will be arrested if the police stop you and you have a knife with you.

Cycling

You cannot ride a bike on a pavement, and you must have lights if you cycle at night. A helmet is not obligatory but is strongly recommended.

For free legal advice you can go to the Citizens Advice Bureau (Chelsea Old Town Hall, Kings Road, London, SW3 5EE 0844 8269708 or 020 7351 2114).

Things to do in London

Markets

The most famous markets are Camden Market (every day 10am-6pm) Tube: Camden Town, Petticoat Lane (Sunday to Friday 10am-2pm) Tube: Liverpool Street, Aldgate or Aldgate East, and Portobello Market (Saturday 8am-6.30pm) Tube: Notting Hill Gate, Ladbroke Grove. For good quality fresh food try a farmers' market early on a Saturday or Sunday morning (see www.lfm.org.uk to find one).

Eating out

Some do 'all-you-can-eat' deals. To try English food, go to a Pub and try some traditional English meals like Shepherd's Pie. The FK Activity Programme has regular trips to restaurants to help you explore and understand food from different countries.

Pubs

Buy drinks at the bar and pay when you order. You do not have to drink alcohol in a pub but you should always have a drink of some kind. Everyone should have a drink in front of them. When you finish you should buy another or move on to another place.

Cinemas

Cinemas in central London tend to be expensive so find one in Zone 2 if you can. the Prince Charles Cinema near Leicester Square shows unusual older films and is cheaper than other local cinemas. The cinema also has some themed evenings and singalongs.

Theatre and musicals

Buy half price tickets for shows on the same day from the ticket office in Leicester Square. Queue at the theatre for returned tickets a few hours before the performance. You can buy tickets at any box office around Piccadilly Circus.

Museums and art galleries

There are over 100 museums in London and most of them are free including the British Museum, the National Gallery, the Natural History Museum, the Science Museum and the V&A. You should also visit some of the others: try the Whitechapel Art Gallery, or for more contemporary art, the Design Museum and Dulwich Picture House.

Parks

47% of London is green space for you to enjoy. Visit a park local to you and or for more information on the Royal Parks see www.royalparks.org.uk.

Supermarkets / shopping

There is a wide range of supermarkets in the UK. Waitrose (opposite 77 Gloucester Road) is expensive but good quality. Also Wholefoods on Kensington High Street sells very good quality organic food. Sainsbury, Tesco and the Co-operative are cheaper but also have good quality products. Asda and Lidl are the cheapest supermarkets and have the most offers. A good place to get cheap electrical items is Argos.

Tipping culture

In restaurants if a 'service charge' has been added to the bill you don't have to leave a tip. If service is not included it is normal to leave a tip of 10-15%. Do not tip in pubs. For taxi drivers give up to £1 more or tell them to 'keep the change'.

Getting around

Tube

Gloucester Road, Earls Court and South Kensington are the nearest tube stations. In every station you can buy or top up your Oyster Card.

Bus

Buses are a cheaper and more interesting way to travel as you see more of the city. For more information about routes visit www.tfl.gov.uk/maps/bus. You cannot pay cash on the bus.

Rail travel

For information on times and fares go to www.nationalrail.co.uk This is an expensive way to travel but it is quick. Booking in advance can save you money.

Santander bikes

There are some other rental bike companies available, but Santander Bikes are the only ones available in every zone of Central London and with fixed pick-up/drop-off points.

Coach travel

This is a slow but cheap way to travel around the country or to get to airports. For information on timetables and fares go to coach.nationalexpress.com or visit Victoria Coach Station, 164 Buckingham Palace Road, SW1W 9TP.

Walking

There are lots of interesting places within walking distance of the school.

Victoria station is about 30 minutes walk from Gloucester Road; High Street Kensington 15 minutes; South Kensington is about 8 minutes; Knightsbridge 20 minutes; Notting Hill 25 minutes; Southbank 50 minutes; Piccadilly Circus 40 minutes.

Sightseeing bus

You can also take a bus tour of the City for around £30-£40 from just outside Gloucester Road Tube Station.

Taxis

Taxis (Black Cabs) have a yellow light on top - switched on when they are available. They can stop to pick you up anywhere and will always use the meter.

There are also mini-cabs which look like normal cars. Only get these from a taxi rank or book by phone and if you have booked one make sure the driver says your name to confirm the booking before you get in the car.

Kabbee and Swiss Cottage Cars are two companies that operate all over London. Uber and Kapten are two other options, which you can download as apps on your phone.

To help you plan journeys around London, use CityMapper (online or app) or TFL Journey Planner (online). They will tell you different routes you can take, travel times and approximate costs.

Paying for London transport

- Pay as you go with contactless or oyster is generally the cheapest way to travel. You only pay for the journeys you make.
- If you don't have a contactless card or device, get an Oyster card from a ticket machine and add pay as you go credit. £7 is payable for an Oyster card.
- Always touch in on a yellow card reader at the start of your journey and touch out at the end to pay the right fare. If you don't, you may pay more than you need.
- Always use the same card or device to touch in and out said that you only pay up to the maximum daily or weekly Monday to Sunday cap.
