IELTS Preparation

- Same course content as Standard Academic Year Morning

Language for You!

- Focus on international communication in English
- Practise speaking and vocabulary with conversation and role-plays
- Topics of interest are chosen for research, discussion, debate and task-based learning

Business English

- The course focuses on language skills used in business contexts, including meetings, presentations, and negotiations
- Reading, writing, listening, and speaking exercises are practised with business topics to build fluency
- Explore international business themes such as leadership and innovation
- You will develop your business vocabulary and formal writing skills for emails, reports and proposals
- Cross-cultural awareness and networking are also included

YOUR STUDY PLAN

- At the beginning of your course, we will plan your course programme with you.
- Students start with a General English course, including Language Development & Language Skills and progress to an IELTS Preparation Course once you reach B1.
- Your progress will be monitored in regular progress meetings with an academic advisor.
- You can also choose Business English in the afternoons in July and August.
- You can take 2 weeks of holiday per 12 weeks of study to give you time to explore the UK and Europe.

“There’s a really nice atmosphere in class and the programme is creative with lots of trips and excursions.”
